

IOWA NATIVE PASSES AWAY

Mother-in-law of Eugene Han- send, Manager of Piggly Wiggly, Dies Here

After a severe illness extending over a long period, Mrs. Emma May Starbuck, 73, died Sunday at the home of her son-in-law, Eugene Hansen, manager of the Provo Piggly Wiggly store. Mrs. Starbuck came here three years ago from Colorado to live with her daughter and son-in-law. Previously to that she had lived almost 38 years at Bellingham, Wash.

Mrs. Starbuck was born in Iowa December 6, 1854. She was a member of the International Bible Students.

Funeral services were held at the Hatch Funeral Home Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock, after which the body was shipped to Bellingham, Wash., for burial in the family plot.

Prof. J. M. Jensen of the Manavua ward bishopric, presided and offered the invocation and benediction.

Dr. Amos N. Merrill was the speaker, after which Mrs. Algie E. Ballif read the 14th chapter of St. John, the favorite biblical chapter of the deceased.

The Sorosis trio, consisting of Mrs. E. H. Eastmond, Mrs. Merle Taylor and Mrs. Lloyd Cullmore, sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "O My Father," the latter being the favorite hymn of the deceased. Mrs. Eastmond sang "Face to Face."

Surviving her are two sons and two daughters, Benjamin C. Starbuck, Bellingham, Wash.; Clyde C. Starbuck, Brighton, Colo.; Mrs. Florence E. Williams, Pueblo, Colo., and Mrs. Georgia M. Hansen, Provo; 16 grand children and two great grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Leslie Loper, Indianola, Ia., and Mrs. Alma West, Geneva, Wash., and one brother, C. S. Lincoln, East Palestine, Ohio.
